Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

Note 1 — Basis of Presentation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of NorthWest Indiana Bancorp (the “Bancorp”), its wholly-owned subsidiary, Peoples Bank SB (the “Bank”), and the Bank’s wholly-owned subsidiaries, Peoples Service Corporation, NWIN, LLC and NWIN Funding, Inc. The Bancorp has no other business activity other than being a holding company for the Bank. The Bancorp’s earnings are dependent upon the earnings of the Bank. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with instructions for Form 10-Q and, therefore, do not include all disclosures required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete presentation of financial statements. In the opinion of management, the consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the consolidated balance sheets of the Bancorp as of June 30, 2007 and 2006, and the consolidated statements of income and changes in stockholders’ equity for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006. The income reported for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007 is not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

Note 2 — Use of Estimates

Preparing financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period, as well as the disclosures provided. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimates associated with the allowance for loan losses, fair values of financial instruments and status of contingencies are particularly susceptible to material change in the near term.

Note 3 — Concentrations of Credit Risk

The primary lending area of the Bancorp encompasses all of Lake County in northwest Indiana, where a majority of loan activity is concentrated. The Bancorp is also an active lender in Porter, and to a lesser extent, LaPorte, Newton and Jasper counties in Indiana. Substantially all loans are secured by specific items of collateral including residences, business assets and consumer assets.

Note 4 – Earnings Per Share

Earnings per common share is computed by dividing net income by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding. A reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of the basic and diluted earnings per common share computation for the three and six months ended June 30, 2007 and June 30, 2006 is presented below:

Diluted earnings per common share:	$ 0.50	$ 0.58	$ 1.03	$ 1.18

Note 5 – Stock Based Compensation

Financial Accounting Standards No. 123R (FAS 123R), “Share-Based Payment”, requires companies to record compensation cost for stock options provided to employees in return for employment service. The cost is measured at the fair value of the options when granted, and this cost is expensed over the employment service period, which is normally the vesting period of the options. Compensation cost will also be recorded for prior option grants that vest after the date of adoption. For the three months ended June 30, 2007, stock based compensation expense of $22,000 was recorded, compared to $17,000 for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. For the six months ended June 30, 2007, stock based compensation expense of $40,000 was recorded, compared to $33,000 for the six months ended June 30, 2006. It is anticipated that current outstanding vested and unvested options will result in additional compensation expense of approximately $35,000 in 2007 and $46,000 in 2008.

A summary of option activity under the Bancorp’s stock option plan for the six months ended June 30, 2007 is presented below:

Options	Shares	Weighted-Average Exercise Price	Weighted-Average Remaining Contractual Term	Aggregate Intrinsic Value
Outstanding at January 1, 2007	86,037	$ 22.92
Granted	—	—
Exercised	(6,842)	$ 20.53
Forfeited or expired	—	—
Outstanding at June 30, 2007	79,195	$ 23.16	4.2	581,194
Exercisable at June 30, 2007	50,420	$ 20.98	3.2	479,889

During the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, no stock options were granted from the Bancorp’s stock option plan. The total intrinsic value of options exercised during the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, was $68,233 and $70,239.

Note 6 – Adoption of New Accounting Standards

The Bancorp adopted FASB Interpretation 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (“FIN 48”), as of January 1, 2007. A tax position is recognized as a benefit only if it is “more likely than not” that the tax position would be sustained in a tax examination, with a tax examination being presumed to occur. The amount recognized is the largest amount of tax benefit that is greater than 50% likely of being realized on examination. For tax positions not meeting the “more likely than not” test, no tax benefit is recorded. The adoption had no effect on the Bancorp’s financial statements. The Bancorp and its subsidiaries are subject to U.S. federal income tax as well as income tax of the state of Indiana, Nevada and Maryland. The Bancorp is no longer subject to examination by taxing authorities for years before 2003. The Bancorp does not expect the total amount of unrecognized tax benefits to significantly increase in the next twelve months. The Bancorp recognizes interest and/or penalties related to income tax matters in income tax expense. The Bancorp did not have any amounts accrued for interest and penalties at June 30, 2007.

The Bancorp adopted FASB Statement No. 156, Accounting for Servicing of Financial Assets—an amendment of FASB Statement No. 140, as of January 1, 2007. This Statement provides the following: 1) revised guidance on when a servicing asset and servicing liability should be recognized; 2) requires all separately recognized servicing assets and servicing liabilities to be initially measured at fair value, if practicable; 3) permits an entity to elect to measure servicing assets and servicing liabilities at fair value each reporting date and report changes in fair value in earnings in the period in which the changes occur; 4) upon initial adoption, permits a one-time reclassification of available-for-sale securities to trading securities for securities which are identified as offsetting the entity’s exposure to changes in the fair value of servicing assets or liabilities that a servicer elects to subsequently measure at fair value; and 5) requires separate presentation of servicing assets and servicing liabilities subsequently measured at fair value in the statement of financial position and additional footnote disclosures. Currently, the Bancorp holds servicing assets consisting of mortgage servicing rights and no servicing liabilities. Mortgage servicing rights are initially measured at fair value. Subsequent to acquisition, mortgage servicing rights are measured using the amortization method, which amortizes the servicing rights in proportion to and over the period of estimated net servicing income or net servicing loss. Mortgage servicing rights are assessed for impairment or increased obligation based on fair value at each reporting date. The Bancorp does not participate in financial hedging activities for its servicing of financial assets.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations

Summary

NorthWest Indiana Bancorp (the "Bancorp") is a bank holding company registered with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Peoples Bank SB, an Indiana savings bank, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Bancorp. The Bancorp has no other business activity other than being the holding company for the Bank.

At June 30, 2007, the Bancorp had total assets of $607.3 million, total loans of $457.0 million and total deposits of $501.7 million. Stockholders' equity totaled $50.5 million or 8.3% of total assets, with book value per share at $18.01. Net income for the quarter ended June 30, 2007, was $1.4 million, or $0.51 earnings per common share for basic and $0.50 for diluted calculations. The annualized return on average assets (ROA) was 0.93%, while the annualized return on average stockholders' equity (ROE) was 11.00%, for the three months ended June 30, 2007. Net income for the six months ended June 30, 2007, was $2.9 million, or $1.04 earnings per common share for basic and $1.03 for diluted calculations. The annualized return on average assets (ROA) was 0.95%, while the annualized return on average stockholders' equity (ROE) was 11.36%, for the six months ended June 30, 2007.

Financial Condition

During the six months ended June 30, 2007, total assets decreased by $11.7 million (1.9%), with interest-earning assets decreasing by $5.9 million (1.0%). At June 30, 2007, interest-earning assets totaled $568.7 million and represented 93.6% of total assets.

Loans receivable totaled $457.0 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $471.7 million at December 31, 2006. At June 30, 2007, loans receivable represented 80.4% of interest-earning assets, 75.3% of total assets and 91.1% of total deposits. The loan portfolio, which is the Bancorp's largest asset, is a significant source of both interest and fee income. The Bancorp's lending strategy stresses quality loan growth, product diversification, and competitive and profitable pricing. The loan portfolio includes $51.3 million (11.2%) in construction and development loans, $233.6 million (51.2%) in residential mortgage loans, $13.6 million (3.0%) in multifamily loans, $111.7 million (24.4%) in commercial real estate loans, $2.8 million (0.6%) in consumer loans, $39.3 million (8.6%) in commercial business and $4.7 million (1.0%) in government and other loans. Adjustable rate loans comprised 57.3% of total loans at June 30, 2007. During the six months ended June 30, 2007, loans decreased by $14.7 million (3.1%). During the period, growth occurred in construction & development, while commercial real estate, multifamily, consumer, commercial business and government loan balances decreased. During the six-month period, loan balances decreased as a result of expected commercial real estate loan, government, and commercial business loan pay-off activity.

The Bancorp is primarily a portfolio lender. Mortgage banking activities are generally limited to the sale of fixed rate mortgage loans with contractual maturities greater than 15 years. These loans are identified as held for sale when originated and sold, on a case-by-case basis, in the secondary market as part of the Bancorp's efforts to manage interest rate risk. During the six months ended June 30, 2007, the Bancorp sold $6.6 million in fixed rate mortgages originated for sale compared to $3.0 million during the six months ended June 30, 2006. Net gains realized from sales for the six months ended June 30, 2007, totaled $118 thousand compared to $57 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2006. At June 30, 2007, the Bancorp had $609 thousand in loans that were classified as held for sale.

The primary objective of the Bancorp's investment portfolio is to provide for the liquidity needs of the Bancorp and to contribute to profitability by providing a stable flow of dependable earnings. Funds are generally invested in federal funds, interest bearing balances in financial institutions, U.S. government securities, federal agency obligations and obligations of state and local municipalities. The securities portfolio totaled $105.3 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $99.0 million at December 31, 2006, an increase of $6.3 million (6.4%). At June 30, 2007, the securities portfolio represented 18.5% of interest-earning assets and 17.3% of total assets. The securities portfolio was comprised of 34.0% in U.S. government agency debt securities, 43.5% in U.S. government agency mortgage-backed securities and collateralized mortgage obligations, and 22.5% in municipal securities. At June 30, 2007, securities available-for-sale ("AFS") totaled $88.7 million or 84.2% of total securities. AFS securities are those the Bancorp may decide to sell if needed for liquidity, asset-liability management or other reasons. In addition, at June 30, 2007, the Bancorp had $3.5 million in Federal Home Loan Bank (FHLB) stock. At June 30, 2007, $2.3 million was maintained in interest bearing balances in financial institutions.

Table of Contents

The allowance for loan losses (ALL) is a valuation allowance for probable incurred credit losses, increased by the provision for loan losses, and decreased by charge-offs less recoveries. A loan is charged-off against the allowance by management as a loss when deemed uncollectible, although collection efforts continue and future recoveries may occur.

The determination of the amounts of the ALL and provisions for loan losses is based on management's current judgments about the credit quality of the loan portfolio with consideration given to all known relevant internal and external factors that affect loan collectibility as of the reporting date. The appropriateness of the current year provision and the overall adequacy of the ALL are determined through a disciplined and consistently applied quarterly process that combines a review of the current position with a risk assessment worksheet.

The Risk Assessment Worksheet covers the residential, commercial real estate, commercial business, and consumer loan portfolios. Management uses a risk rating system to assist in determining the appropriate level for the ALL. Management assigns risk factors to non-performing loans; loans that management has internally classified as impaired; loans that management has internally classified as substandard, doubtful, loss, or watch; and, performing loans.

Risk factors for non-performing and internally classified loans are based on an analysis of the estimated collateral liquidation value for individual loans defined as substandard or doubtful. Estimated collateral liquidation values are based on established loan underwriting standards and adjusted for current mitigating factors on a loan-by-loan basis. Aggregate substandard loan collateral deficiencies are determined for residential, commercial real estate, commercial business, and consumer loan portfolios. These deficiencies are then stated as a percentage of the total substandard balances to determine the appropriate risk factors.

Risk factors for performing and non-classified loans are based on the average net charge-offs for the most recent five years, which are then stated as a percentage of average loans for the same period. Historical risk factors are calculated for residential, commercial real estate, commercial business, and consumer loans. The historical factors are then adjusted for current subjective risks attributable to: local and national economic factors; loan growth and changes in loan composition; organizational structure; composition of loan staff; loan concentrations; policy changes and out of market lending activity.

Non-performing loans include those loans that are 90 days or more past due and those loans that have been placed on non-accrual status. Non-performing loans totaled $3.7 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $3.1 million at December 31, 2006, an increase of $591 thousand or 19.2%. The increase in non-performing loans at June 30, 2007 is related to one past due commercial real estate loan in the amount of $749 thousand. Subsequent to June 30, 2007, interest payments for this loan have been received and the loan is now current. The ratio of non-performing loans to total loans was 0.80% at June 30, 2007, compared to 0.65% at December 31, 2006. The ratio of non-performing loans to total assets was 0.60% at June 30, 2007, compared to 0.50% at December 31, 2006. The June 30, 2007 non-performing loan balances include $2.1 million in loans accounted for on a non-accrual basis and $1.6 million in accruing loans which were contractually past due 90 days or more. Loans, internally classified as substandard totaled $5.6 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $6.9 million at December 31, 2006. No loans were classified as doubtful or loss. Substandard loans include non-performing loans and potential problem loans, where information about possible credit issues or other conditions causes management to question the ability of such borrowers to comply with loan covenants or repayment terms. In addition to identifying and monitoring non-performing and other classified loans, management maintains a list of watch loans. Watch loans represent loans management is closely monitoring due to one or more factors that may cause the loan to become classified. Watch loans totaled $9.7 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $7.6 million at December 31, 2006. The increase in watch loans at June 30, 2007 is related to commercial business and real estate loans with potential cash flow issues.

At June 30, 2007, impaired loans totaled $955 thousand, compared to $1.9 million at December 31, 2006. The decrease for the period is a result of receiving a loan pay-off from a commercial real estate borrower. The June 30, 2007, impaired loan balances were also classified as non-performing loans at the end of both periods. The June 30, 2007, impaired loan balances consist of three loans for two commercial borrowers that are secured by business assets and real estate, and are personally guaranteed by the owner of the business. Impaired loans are loans where full payment under the loan terms is not expected. There were no other loans considered to be impaired loans as of, or for the quarter ended, June 30, 2007.

At June 30, 2007, management is of the opinion that there are no loans, except those discussed above, where known information about possible credit problems of borrowers causes management to have serious doubts as to the ability of such borrowers to comply with the present loan repayment terms and which may result in disclosure of such loans as non-accrual, past due or restructured loans. Also, at June 30, 2007, no other interest bearing assets were required to be disclosed as non-accrual, past due, restructured or potential problems if such assets were loans. Management does not presently anticipate that any of the non-performing loans or classified loans would materially impact future operations, liquidity or capital resources.

The Bancorp has a $1.1 million participation in a $6.4 million letter of credit, which acts as payment support to bondholders. The Bancorp's management currently believes that the principal of the borrower has the financial capacity to meet future bond repayment obligations. Cash flows from the security collateralizing the letter of credit have been negatively impacted due to the closing of a major tenant. Management will continue to monitor the letter of credit and bond repayments.

For the six months ended June 30, 2007, $5 thousand in additions to the ALL account were required, compared to $15 for the quarter ended June 30, 2006. The June 30, 2007 ALL contained $436 in specific allowances for the collateral deficiency associated with two loans totaling $955 thousand, which had been classified as impaired at June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006. Charge-offs, net of recoveries, totaled $1 thousand for the current six months, compared to recoveries, net of recoveries of $28 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The ALL provisions take into consideration management's current judgments about the credit quality of the loan portfolio, loan portfolio balances, changes in the portfolio mix and local economic conditions. In determining the provision for loan loss for the current period, management has given consideration to increased risks associated within the local economy, changes in loan balances and mix, and asset quality.

The ALL to total loans was 0.93% at June 30, 2007, compared to 0.90% at December 31, 2006, while the ALL to non-performing loans (coverage ratio) was 116.4% at June 30, 2007, compared to 138.6% at December 31, 2006. A consistently strong coverage ratio is an indicator that sufficient provisions for loan losses have been established. The June 30, 2007 balance in the ALL account of $4.3 million is considered adequate by management after evaluation of the loan portfolio, past experience and current economic and market conditions. While management may periodically allocate portions of the allowance for specific problem loans, the whole allowance is available for any loan charge-offs that occur. The allocation of the ALL reflects performance and growth trends within the various loan categories, as well as consideration of the facts and circumstances that affect the repayment of individual loans, and loans which have been pooled as of the evaluation date, with particular attention given to non-performing loans and loans which have been classified as substandard, doubtful or loss. Management has allocated general reserves to both performing and non-performing loans based on current information available.

At June 30, 2007, the Bancorp had two properties in foreclosed real estate totaling $130 thousand, compared to 4 properties totaling $323 thousand at December 31, 2006.

In addition, other short-term borrowings totaled $1.3 million at June 30, 2007, compared to $1.7 million at December 31, 2006, a decrease of $346 thousand (2.0%).

Liquidity and Capital Resources

For the Bancorp, liquidity management refers to the ability to generate sufficient cash to fund current loan demand, meet deposit withdrawals, and pay dividends and operating expenses. Because profitability and liquidity are often conflicting objectives, management attempts to maximize the Bancorp's net interest margin by making adequate, but not excessive, liquidity provisions.

Changes in the liquidity position result from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flows from operating activities are generally the cash effects of transactions and other events that enter into the determination of net income. The primary investing activities include loan originations, loan repayments, investments in interest bearing balances in financial institutions, and the purchase, sale, and maturity of investment securities. Financing activities focus almost entirely on the generation of customer deposits. In addition, the Bancorp utilizes borrowings (i.e., retail repurchase agreements and advances from the FHLB) as a source of funds.

During the six months ended June 30, 2007, cash and cash equivalents decreased by $3.3 million compared to a $24.2 million decrease for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The primary sources of cash were proceeds from pay downs of securities, loan sales, loan repayments and proceeds from FHLB advances and other borrowed funds. The primary uses of cash were the purchase of securities, funding of withdrawals for short-term local government funds, repayment of FHLB advances, purchase of loan participations and the payment of common stock dividends. Cash provided for operating activities totaled $2.9 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to $3.2 million for the period ended June 30, 2006. Cash inflows from investing activities totaled $7.2 million for the current period, compared to cash outflows of $20.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The change for the current period was primarily due to expected commercial real estate, government and commercial business loan pay-offs. Net cash outflows from financing activities totaled $13.4 million during the current period compared to net cash outflows of $7.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The change in net cash outflows from financing activities was primarily due to an increase in net proceeds from FHLB advance balances during the six months ended June 30, 2007. The Bancorp paid dividends on common stock of $2.0 million during the current six-month period compared to $1.9 million for the three months ended June 30, 2006.

At June 30, 2007, outstanding commitments to fund loans totaled $107.6 million. Approximately 89% of the commitments were at variable rates. Management believes that the Bancorp has sufficient cash flow and borrowing capacity to fund all outstanding commitments and to maintain proper levels of liquidity.

Management strongly believes that maintaining a high level of capital enhances safety and soundness. During the six months ended June 30, 2007, stockholders' equity increased by $536 thousand (1.1%). The increase was primarily a result of the Bancorp's $2.9 million in net income for the current three month period. The Bancorp declared $2.0 million in cash dividends for the six-month period ended June 30, 2007. The net unrealized loss on available-for-sale securities, net of tax was $542 thousand for the current six months. During the current six-month period, the Bancorp received $141 thousand from the issuance of Bancorp common stock from stock-based compensation plans.

The Bancorp is subject to risk-based capital guidelines adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "FRB"), and the Bank is subject to risk-based capital guidelines adopted by the FDIC. As applied to the Bancorp and the Bank, the FRB and FDIC capital requirements are substantially identical. The Bancorp and the Bank are required to maintain a total risk-based capital ratio of 8%, of which 4% must be Tier 1 capital. In addition, the FRB and FDIC regulations provide for a minimum Tier 1 leverage ratio (Tier 1 capital to adjusted average assets) of 3% for financial institutions that meet certain specified criteria, including that they have the highest regulatory rating and are not experiencing or anticipating significant growth. All other financial institutions are required to maintain a Tier 1 leverage ratio of 3% plus an additional cushion of at least one to two percent.

The table on the following page shows that, at June 30, 2007, and December 31, 2006, the Bancorp's capital exceeded all regulatory capital requirements. The Bancorp's and the Bank's regulatory capital ratios were substantially the same at both dates. The dollar amounts are in millions.

The Bancorp's ability to pay dividends to its shareholders is entirely dependent upon the Bank's ability to pay dividends to the Bancorp. Under Indiana law, the Bank may pay dividends from its undivided profits (generally, earnings less losses, bad debts, taxes and other operating expenses) as is considered expedient by the Bank's Board of Directors. However, the Bank must obtain the approval of the Indiana Department of Financial Institutions for the payment of a dividend if the total of all dividends declared by the Bank during the current year, including the proposed dividend, would exceed the sum of retained net income for the year to date plus its retained net income for the previous two years. For this purpose, "retained net income," means net income as calculated for call report purposes, less all dividends declared for the applicable period. Moreover, the FDIC and the Federal Reserve Board may prohibit the payment of dividends if it determines that the payment of dividends would constitute an unsafe or unsound practice in light of the financial condition of the Bank. The aggregate amount of dividends, which may be declared by the Bank in 2007, without prior regulatory approval, approximates $4,907,000 plus current 2007 net profits.

Income from increases in the cash value of bank owned life insurance totaled $195 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to $172 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2006, an increase of $23 thousand (13.4%). For the six months ended June 30, 2007, a $6 thousand loss from the sale of foreclosed real estate was realized, while net gains of $42 thousand were realized during the six months ended June 30, 2006.

Noninterest expense for the six months ended June 30, 2007 was $7.11 million, a decrease of $73 thousand (1.0%) from $7.18 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. During the current six months, compensation and benefits totaled $3.66 million, a decrease of $70 thousand (1.9%) from $3.73 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The decrease was primarily due to a reduction in benefit accruals. Occupancy and equipment totaled $1.3 million for the current six months, an increase of $49 thousand (4.0%) compared to $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The increase was a result of additional depreciation expense for capital expenditures. Data processing expense totaled $445 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2007, an increase of $36 thousand (8.8%) from $409 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The change was a result of increased utilization of the Bancorp's core data processing system. Marketing expense related to banking products totaled $119 thousand for the current six months, a decrease of $50 thousand (29.6%) from $169 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 2006. Marketing expenses for the current period were deferred to the second half of 2007, as the Bank continues to focus on reengineering its marketing function. Other expenses related to banking operations totaled $1.6 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007, a decrease of $38 thousand (2.3%) from $1.7 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The Bancorp's efficiency ratio was 64.8% for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to 59.7% for the six months ended June 30, 2006.

Income tax expenses for the six months ended June 30, 2007 totaled $948 thousand, compared to $1.5 million for the six months ended June 30, 2006, a decrease of $552 thousand (36.8%). The combined effective federal and state tax rates for the Bancorp was 24.6% for the six months ended June 30, 2007, compared to 31.1% for the six months ended June 30, 2006. The decrease was attributable to an increased investment in municipal securities, bank owned life insurance and the Bank's Real Estate Investment Trust.

Critical Accounting Policies

Critical accounting policies are those accounting policies that management believes are most important to the portrayal of the Bancorp's financial condition and that require management's most difficult, subjective or complex judgments. The Bancorp's critical accounting policies from December 31, 2006 remain unchanged.

Forward-Looking Statements

Statements contained in this report that are not historical facts are forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. The words or phrases "would be," "will allow," "intends to," "will likely result," "are expected to," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimate," "project," or similar expressions are also intended to identify "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act. The Bancorp cautions readers that forward-looking statements, including without limitation those relating to the Bancorp's future business prospects, interest income and expense, net income, liquidity, and capital needs are subject to certain risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those indicated in the forward-looking statements, due to, among other things, factors identified in this report, including those identified in Item 1A of the Bancorp's 2006 Form 10-K.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

The Bancorp's primary market risk exposure is interest rate risk. Interest rate risk is the risk that the Bancorp's earnings and capital will be adversely affected by changes in interest rates. The primary approach to interest rate risk management is one that focuses on adjustments to the Bancorp's asset/liability mix in order to limit the magnitude of interest rate risk. The Board of Directors has delegated the responsibility for measuring, monitoring and controlling interest rate risk to the Bancorp's asset/liability, capital and technology management committee (ALCTM). The ALCTM is responsible for developing and implementing interest rate risk management strategies, establishing and maintaining a system of limits and controls, and establishing and utilizing an interest rate risk measurement system. The ALCTM, which is made up of members of senior management, generally meets monthly with board presentations occurring quarterly.

Performance from an interest rate risk perspective can be measured in many ways. Methodologies used by the Bancorp focus on net interest income and the net economic value of equity. Net interest income is defined as interest income less interest expense. Variability in net interest income arises because its components — interest income and interest expense — do not change equally as rates vary. This mismatch occurs because individual assets and liabilities reprice differently as rates change. Factors which affect net interest income include changes in the level of interest rates, changes in the relationship between Bancorp yield rates and interest costs, changes in the volume of assets and liabilities outstanding, and changes in the composition or mix of assets and liabilities. Management uses rate shock (i.e., instantaneous and sustained parallel shifts in the yield curve in 1% increments up and down 2%) for stress testing the net interest income under several rate change levels. In order to simulate activity, maturing balances are replaced with new balances at the new rate level and repricing balances are adjusted to the new rate shock level. The results are compared to limits set by the Board of Directors and are monitored to identify unfavorable trends. Net economic value of equity is the net present value of the Bancorp's portfolio of assets and liabilities. By marking-to-market the components of the balance sheet, management can compute the net economic value of equity. As rates change over time, the market values of Bancorp assets and liabilities will change, with longer-term products fluctuating more than short-term products. In most cases, rate-sensitive assets and liabilities will not have the same maturity characteristics. Therefore, as rates vary, the market value of the rate-sensitive assets will not change equally with the market value of rate-sensitive liabilities. This will cause the net economic value of equity to vary. The focus of the net economic value of equity is to determine the percentage decline in the net economic value of equity caused by a 2% increase or decrease in interest rates, whichever produces the larger decline. A large value indicates a large percentage decline in the net economic value of equity due to changes in interest rates and, thus, high interest rate sensitivity. A low value indicates a small percentage decline in the net economic value of equity due to changes in interest rates and, thus, low interest rate sensitivity. As with net interest income, the results are compared to limits set by the Board of Directors and are monitored to identify unfavorable trends.

Presented in the following tables is forward-looking information about the Bancorp's sensitivity to changes in interest rates as of June 30, 2007 and December 31, 2006. The tables incorporate the Bancorp's internal system generated data as related to the maturity and repayment/withdrawal of interest-earning assets and interest-bearing liabilities. Prepayment assumptions are based on published data. Present value calculations use current published market interest rates. For core deposits that have no contractual maturity, the table presents principal cash flows and, as applicable, related weighted-average interest rates based on the Bancorp's historical experience, management's judgment, and statistical analysis, as applicable, concerning their most likely withdrawal behaviors, but not as to when they could be repriced.

Change in rates	Net Interest Income			Net Economic Value of Equity
	Amount	% Chg.	Policy Limit %	Amount	% Chg.	Policy Limit %
2%	$15,707	-8.9%	-20.0%	$ 53,318	-14.1%	-35%

-2%	$17,740	2.9%	-20.0%	$ 63,713	2.6%	-35%

The tables show that the Bancorp has managed interest rate risk within the policy limits set by the Board of Directors. At June 30, 2007, an increase in interest rates of 2% would have resulted in an 8.3% decrease in net interest income and a 12.5% decrease in the net economic value of equity compared to decreases of 8.9% and 14.1% at December 31, 2006. During the six months ended June 30, 2007, the Bancorp has managed interest rate risk by generally selling fixed rate loans with contractual maturities exceeding 15 years, maintaining the short duration of the securities portfolio, and implementing deposit funding and pricing strategies.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of Disclosure Controls and Procedures.

The Bancorp maintains disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Sections 13a – 15(e) and 15d – 15(e) of regulations promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) that are designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Bancorp in the reports that it files or submits under the “Exchange Act” is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms. These disclosure controls and procedures include controls and procedures designed to ensure that information required to be disclosed by the Bancorp in the reports that it files or submits under the Exchange Act is accumulated and communicated to the Bancorp’s management, including its principal executive officer and principal financial officer, as appropriate to allow timely decisions regarding required disclosure. The Bancorp’s chief executive officer and chief financial officer evaluate the effectiveness of the Bancorp’s disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of each quarter. Based on that evaluation as of June 30, 2007, the Bancorp’s chief executive officer and chief financial officer have concluded that such disclosure controls and procedures were effective as of that date in ensuring that information required to be disclosed by the Bancorp under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in the SEC’s rules and forms.
