NORTHWEST INDIANA BANCORP
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

NOTE 1 - BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of NorthWest Indiana Bancorp (the Bancorp), its wholly-owned subsidiary, Peoples Bank SB (the Bank), and the Bank's wholly-owned subsidiary, Peoples Service Corporation. The Bancorp has no other business activity other than being a holding company for the Bank. The Bancorp's earnings are dependent upon the earnings of the Bank. Peoples Service Corporation is inactive. The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements were prepared in accordance with instructions for Form 10-Q and, therefore, do not include all disclosures required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete presentation of financial statements. In the opinion of management, the consolidated financial statements contain all adjustments (consisting only of normal recurring accruals) necessary to present fairly the balance sheets of the Bancorp as of June 30, 1999 and December 31, 1998, and the statements of income for the three and six months ended June 30, 1999 and 1998, and changes in stockholders' equity and cash flows for the six months ended June 30, 1999 and 1998. The income reported for the six month period ended June 30, 1999 is not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year.

NOTE 2 - CONCENTRATIONS OF CREDIT RISK

The Bancorp grants residential, commercial real estate, commercial business and installment loans to customers in its primary market area of Lake County, in northwest Indiana. Substantially all loans are secured by specific items of collateral including residences, business assets and consumer assets.

NOTE 3 - RECLASSIFICATIONS

Certain amounts reported in the December 31, 1998 consolidated financial statements have been reclassified to conform to the June 30, 1999 presentation.

NOTE 4 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

The Bancorp is a party to financial instruments in the normal course of business to meet financing needs of its customers and to reduce its own exposure to fluctuating interest rates. These financial instruments include commitments to make loans and standby letters of credit.

Exposure to credit loss in the event of nonperformance by the other party to the financial instrument for commitments to make loans and standby letters of credit is represented by the contractual amount of those instruments. The Bancorp uses the same credit policy to make such commitments as it uses for on-balance-sheet items.

At June 30, 1999 and December 31, 1998, commitments to make loans totaled $53.8 million and $40.0 million, respectively and standby letters of credit totaled $1.6 million and $1.9 million, respectively. At June 30, 1999, $48.4 million (90%) of the commitments were at variable rates.

Since commitments to make loans may expire without being used, the amount does not necessarily represent future cash commitments. Collateral obtained upon exercise of the commitment is determined using management's credit evaluation of the borrower, and may include accounts receivable, inventory, property, land and other items.

NOTE 5 - EARNINGS PER SHARE

On February 28, 1999, the Bancorp effected a two-for-one common stock split as a share dividend. Earnings and dividends per share and other share related information is restated for the stock split.

A reconciliation of the numerators and denominators of the basic earnings per common share and diluted earnings per common share computations is presented:

MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

SUMMARY

NorthWest Indiana Bancorp (the Bancorp) is a bank holding company registered with the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System. Peoples Bank SB (the Bank), an Indiana savings bank, is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Bancorp. The Bancorp has no other business activity other than being the holding company for Peoples Bank SB.

At June 30, 1999, the Bancorp had total assets of $353.4 million and total deposits of $300.5 million. Stockholders' equity totaled $32.0 million or 9.1% of total assets, with book value per share at $11.56. The annualized return on average assets (ROA) was 1.16%, while the annualized return on average stockholders' equity (ROE) was 12.72%, for the six months ended June 30, 1999.

FINANCIAL CONDITION

During the six months ended June 30, 1999, total assets increased by $8.0 million (2.3%), with interest-earning assets increasing by $9.9 million (3.1%).

At June 30, 1999, interest-earning assets totaled $334.9 million and represented 94.8% of total assets.

Loans receivable totaled $286.7 million which represented 85.6% of interest-earning assets, 81.1% of total assets and 95.4% of total deposits. The loan portfolio includes $15.0 million (5.2%) in construction and development loans, $157.5 million (54.9%) in residential mortgage loans, $77.6 million (27.1%) in commercial and multifamily real estate loans, $10.6 million (3.7%) in consumer loans, and $26.0 million (9.1%) in commercial business and other loans. Adjustable rate loans comprised 54% of total loans at June 30, 1999. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, loans increased by $13.3 million (4.9%). The growth is a result of a strong local economy, favorable interest rates and aggressive marketing and call programs.

The Bancorp is primarily a portfolio lender. Mortgage banking activities are limited to the sale of fixed rate mortgage loans with contractual maturities of thirty years. These loans are sold, on a case-by-case basis, in the secondary market as part of the Bancorp's efforts to manage interest rate risk. The Bancorp retains the servicing on all loans sold in the secondary market. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, the Bancorp sold $2.3 million in fixed rate mortgage loans. Net gains realized from the sales totaled $38 thousand. Mortgage loan servicing income totaled $9 thousand. At June 30, 1999, the Bancorp had $615 thousand classified as loans held for sale.

The primary objective of the Bancorp's investment portfolio is to provide for the liquidity needs of the Bancorp and to contribute to profitability by providing a stable flow of dependable earnings. Funds are generally invested in federal funds, interest bearing balances in financial institutions, U.S. government securities and federal agency obligations. Interest-bearing balances in financial institutions include overnight deposits at the Federal Home Loan Bank of Indianapolis (FHLB). Investments are generally for terms ranging from one day to five years. At June 30, 1999, the investment portfolio totaled $39.0 million and was invested as follows: 79.6% in U.S. government agency debt securities, 18.1% in U.S. government debt securities, and 2.3% in U.S. government agency mortgage-backed securities. At June 30, 1999, securities available-for-sale totaled $25.4 million or 65.1% of total securities. The available-for-sale portfolio permits the active management of the Bancorp's liquidity position. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, investment securities increased by $4.4 million (12.7%). At June 30, 1999, the Bancorp had $4.3 million in interest-bearing balances at the FHLB and $2.5 million in federal funds sold.

Management believes that the credit risk profile of the earning asset portfolio is relatively low. The table which follows sets forth information with respect to the number (#) and balances (Amount) of non-performing assets and related ratios for the periods indicated. The amounts are stated in thousands (000's).

</TABLE>

At June 30, 1999, $1.1 million of the Bancorp's loans were classified as substandard. The total represents 20 loans. No loans were classified as doubtful or loss. Classified loans include nonperforming loans disclosed in the previous table. Management does not anticipate that any of the non-performing loans or classified loans will materially impact future operations, liquidity or capital resources. At June 30, 1999, there were no material credits that would cause management to have serious doubts as to the ability of such borrowers to comply with loan repayment terms.

Because some loans may not be repaid in accordance with contractual agreements an allowance for loan losses (ALL) has been maintained. While management may periodically allocate portions of the allowance for specific problem loans, the entire allowance is available to absorb all credit losses that arise from the loan portfolio and is not segregated for, or allocated to, any particular loan or group of loans. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, additions to the ALL account totaled $100 thousand compared to $40 thousand for the six months ended June 30, 1998. Charge-offs net of recoveries totaled $5 thousand during the six months ended June 30, 1999. The amount provided during the current six months was based on loan activity, changes within the loan portfolio mix, and resulting changes in management's assessment of portfolio risk. At June 30, 1999, the balance in the ALL account totaled $3.2 million, which is considered adequate by management after evaluation of the loan portfolio, past experience and current economic and market conditions.

The table below sets forth the allocation of the ALL and related ratios on the dates indicated. The amounts are in thousands (000's). The percent columns represent the percentage of loans in each category to total loans.

Ratio of ALL to loans outstanding	1.13%	1.14%
Ratio of ALL to non-performing loans	373.5%	212.9%

At June 30, 1999, no portion of the ALL was allocated to impaired loan balances as the Bancorp had no individual loans considered to be impaired loans as of, or for the six months ended June 30, 1999. The allocation of the ALL reflects performance and growth trends within the various loan categories, as well as, consideration of the facts and circumstances that affect the repayment of individual loans, as well as, loans which have been evaluated on a pooled basis. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, additions to the ALL were allocated to the commercial real estate loans and commercial business loans due to the growth in these portfolios and the additional risk related to these products.

Deposits are the major source of funds for lending and other investment purposes. At June 30, 1999, deposits totaled $300.5 million. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, deposit growth totaled $7.3 million (2.5%). Savings accounts decreased $366 thousand (0.7%), checking accounts increased $5.2 million (10.3%), money market deposit accounts (MMDA's) increased $10.8 million (32.5%) while certificates of deposit decreased by $8.3 million (5.2%). The growth in core deposits (checking accounts and MMDA's) was a result of competitive product offerings and an aggressive marketing program. The decrease in certificates of deposit was caused by management's decision to let high dollar, high cost funds mature. At June 30, 1999, the deposit base was comprised of 16.2% savings accounts, 14.6% MMDA's, 18.6% checking accounts and 50.6% certificates of deposit. At June 30, 1999, repurchase agreements totaled $3.1 million. Other short-term borrowings totaled $2.4 million. The Bancorp had $12.0 million in FHLB advances with a weighted-average maturity of 3.4 years.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

For the Bancorp, liquidity management refers to the ability to generate sufficient cash to fund current loan demand, meet savings deposit withdrawals, and pay dividends and operating expenses. The Bancorp's primary goal for liquidity management is to ensure that at all times it can meet the cash demands of its depositors and its loan customers. A secondary purpose of liquidity management is profit management. Because profit and liquidity are often conflicting objectives, management attempts to maximize the Bancorp's net interest margin by making adequate, but not excessive, liquidity provisions. Finally, because the Bank is subject to legal reserve requirements under Federal Reserve Regulation D, liquidity is managed to ensure that the Bank maintains an adequate level of legal reserves.

Changes in the liquidity position result from operating, investing and financing activities. Cash flows from operating activities are generally the cash effects of transactions and other events that enter into the determination of net income. The primary investing activities include loan originations, loan repayments, investments in interest bearing balances in financial institutions, and the purchase and maturity of investment securities. Financing activities focus almost entirely on the generation of customer deposits. In addition, the Bancorp utilizes borrowings (i.e., repurchase agreements and advances from the FHLB) as a source of funds.

During the six months ended June 30, 1999, cash and cash equivalents decreased by $9.7 million compared to a $549 thousand increase for the six months ended June 30, 1998. The decrease reflects the reduction of interest bearing balances in financial institutions and federal funds sold, as funds were used for loan originations. The primary sources of cash were deposit growth, proceeds from maturities of securities and cash provided by operating activities. The primary uses of cash were the loan originations, purchase of securities and the payment of common stock dividends. During the current six months cash provided by operating activities totaled $2.3 million compared to $1.4 million for the six months ended June 30, 1998. The increase was due to increased earnings and cash flows from loan sales. Cash outflows from investing activities reflect strong loan demand during the six months ended June 30, 1999. The increase in loans receivable and loan participations purchased totaled $13.3 million compared to a $984 thousand decrease for the six months ended June 30, 1998. Cash flows from financing activities totaled $6.4 million during the current period compared to $2.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 1998. During the current period the Bancorp paid dividends on common stock of $1.2 million. Deposit growth totaled $7.3 million compared to $3.8 million for the six months ended June 30, 1998, while borrowed funds and proceeds from FHLB advances increased by $219 thousand compared to a $2.8 million decrease for the six months ended June 30, 1998.

Management strongly believes that maintaining a high level of capital enhances safety and soundness. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, stockholders' equity increased by $665 thousand (2.1%). The increase resulted primarily from earnings of $2.0 million during the period. In addition, $16 thousand represents proceeds from the exercise of 3,348 stock options. The Bancorp paid $1.2 million in cash dividends during the six month period. The net unrealized loss on available-for-sale securities was $214 thousand for the period.

The Bancorp is subject to risk-based capital guidelines adopted by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the FRB), and the Bank is subject to risk-based capital guidelines adopted by the FDIC. As applied to the Bancorp and the Bank, the FRB and FDIC capital requirements are substantially identical. The Bancorp and the Bank are required to maintain a total risk-based capital ratio of 8%, of which 4% must be Tier I capital. In addition, the FRB and FDIC regulations provide for a minimum Tier I leverage ratio (Tier I capital to adjusted average assets) of 3% for financial institutions that meet certain specified criteria, including that they have the highest regulatory rating and are not experiencing or anticipating significant growth. All other financial institutions are required to maintain a Tier I leverage ratio of 3% plus an additional cushion of at least one to two percent.

The following table shows that, at June 30, 1999, the Bancorp's capital exceeded all regulatory capital requirements. At June 30, 1999, the Bancorp's and the Bank's regulatory capital ratios were substantially the same. The dollar amounts are in millions.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS - COMPARISON OF THE QUARTER ENDED JUNE 30, 1999 TO THE QUARTER ENDED JUNE 30, 1998

Net income for the three months ended June 30, 1999 was $1.1 million compared to $931 thousand for the quarter ended June 30, 1998, an increase of $137 thousand (14.7%). The earnings represent a ROA of 1.20% for the current quarter compared to 1.14% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. The ROE was 13.35% for the current quarter compared to 12.34% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998.

Net interest income for the three months ended June 30, 1999 was $3.6 million, up $413 thousand (12.9%) from $3.2 million for the three months ended June 30, 1998. The increase in net interest income was due to a lower cost of funds. The weighted-average yield on interest-earning assets was 7.55% for the three months ended June 30, 1999 compared to 8.07% for the three months ended June 30, 1998. The weighted-average cost of funds for the quarter ended June 30, 1999, was 3.46% compared to 4.24% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. The impact of the 7.55% return on interest-earning assets and the 3.46% cost of funds resulted in an interest rate spread of 4.09% for the current quarter compared to 3.83% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. During the current quarter total interest income increased by $81 thousand (1.3%) while total interest expense decreased by $332 thousand (10.6%). The net interest margin was 4.06% for the three months ended June 30, 1999 compared to 3.91% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998.

During the three months ended June 30, 1999, interest income from loans decreased by $42 thousand (0.7%) compared to the three months ended June 30, 1998. The decrease was due to a decrease in the loan portfolio yield. The weighted-average yield on loans outstanding was 7.90% for the current quarter compared to 8.36% for the three months ended June 30, 1998. Loan balances averaged $285.0 million for the current quarter, up $13.7 million (5.0%) from $271.3 million for the three months ended June 30, 1998. During the three months ended June 30, 1999, interest income on investments and other deposits increased by $123 thousand (18.9%) compared to the quarter ended June 30, 1998. The increase was due to higher average daily balances. The weighted-average yield on securities and other deposits was 5.70% for the current quarter compared to 6.22% for the three months ended June 30, 1998. Securities and other deposits averaged $54.3 million for the current quarter, up $12.3 million (29.3%) from $42.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 1998.

Interest expense for deposits decreased by $328 thousand (11.3%) during the current quarter compared to the three months ended June 30, 1998. The decrease was due to a lower cost of funds. The weighted-average rate paid on deposits for the three months ended June 30, 1999 was 3.38% compared to 4.18% for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. The lower cost of funds was due to growth in core deposits (checking accounts, savings accounts and money market accounts). Core deposits averaged $142.0 million for the current quarter, up $26.1 million (22.5%) from $115.9 million for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. Total deposit balances averaged $304.3 million for the current quarter, up $26.8 million (9.7%) from $277.5 for the quarter ended June 30, 1998. Interest expense on borrowed funds decreased by $4 thousand (1.8%) during the current quarter due to a decrease in the cost of borrowed funds. The weighted-average cost of borrowed funds was 4.99% for the current quarter compared to 5.32% for the three months ended June 30, 1998. Borrowed funds averaged $17.2 million during the quarter ended June 30, 1999, up $600 thousand (3.6%) from $16.6 million for the quarter ended June 30, 1998.

Noninterest income for the quarter ended June 30, 1999 was $416 thousand, up $69 thousand (19.9%) from $347 thousand for the three months ended June 30, 1998. During the current quarter, fees and service charges increased $95 thousand (45.2%) and income from Trust operations increased $14 thousand (18.4%) compared to the three months ended June 30, 1998.

Noninterest expense for the quarter ended June 30, 1999 was $2.2 million, up $215 thousand (10.8%) from $2.0 million for the three months ended June 30, 1998. The increase in compensation and benefits was due to additional staffing and the increased cost of employee benefits. The increases in occupancy and equipment, and data processing reflect investments in technology and new products and services. The Bancorp's efficiency ratio was 54.8% for the quarter ended June 30, 1999 compared to 56.1% for the three months ended June 30, 1998. The ratio is determined by dividing total noninterest expense by the sum of net interest income and total noninterest income for the period.

Income tax expenses for the three months ended June 30, 1999 totaled $706 thousand compared to $612 thousand for the three months ended June 30, 1998, an increase of $94 thousand (15.4%). The increase was due to an increase in pretax earnings during the current quarter. The combined effective federal and state tax rates for the Bancorp were 40% for the three months ended June 30, 1999 and 1998.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS - COMPARISON OF THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 1999 TO THE SIX MONTHS ENDED JUNE 30, 1998

(9.2%) compared to the six months ended June 30, 1998.

Noninterest expense for the six months ended June 30, 1999 was $4.3 million, up $335 thousand (8.5%) from $4.0 million for the six months ended June 30, 1998. The increase in compensation and benefits was due to additional staffing, annual salary increases and the increased cost of employee benefits. The increases in occupancy and equipment, and data processing reflect investments in technology and new products and services. The Bancorp's efficiency ratio was 55.3% for the six months ended June 30, 1999 compared to 56.3% for the six months ended June 30, 1998.

Income tax expenses for the six months ended June 30, 1999 totaled $1.3 million compared to $1.2 million for the six months ended June 30, 1998, an increase of $134 thousand (11.1%). The increase was due to an increase in pretax earnings during the current six months. The combined effective federal and state tax rates for the Bancorp were 40% for the six months ended June 30, 1999 and 1998.

YEAR 2000

The Year 2000 problem stems from computer programs that identify the year with two digits instead of four. The problem with this code is that in the Year 2000, `00' may be interpreted as 1900 or not processed at all. The year 2000 problem is not limited to one type of software or hardware. Machines and programs affected include mainframes, personal computers, networks, ATMs, and other items such as elevators, infrastructures, and telephone systems.

The Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council (FFIEC) has outlined five phases for institutions to effectively manage the Year 2000 challenge.

Awareness - Gain executive support and commit resources to the Year 2000 challenge.

Assessment - Identify all critical business processes and elements of information technology (IT) and non-IT systems that must be modified.

Renovation - Convert, replace or eliminate software and databases as necessary, according to the risk-based priorities established during assessment.

Validation - Test and verify systems, databases and utilities by simulating data conditions for the Year 2000.

Implementation - Put renovated systems, databases and utilities into production.

In April 1997, the Bancorp implemented an action plan to address the century date change issue so that service and business operations will not be interrupted in the year 2000. This plan meets all FFIEC guidelines and the Bancorp is on schedule to meet all plan deadlines. A project leader and a team of employees have analyzed daily operations, business forms, software, hardware and equipment for year 2000 compliance.

At June 30, 1999 the awareness, assessment, renovation, validation and implementation phases have been completed. Management has assessed its credit and liquidity risk by evaluating the Year 2000 preparedness of significant customers. At this time, management believes that the overall risk rating for deposit and loan customers is low. Management has identified customers of moderate or high risk and is monitoring their efforts to be Year 2000 ready.

The current estimate of total Year 2000 program costs is approximately $300 thousand. Management expects to invest approximately $225 thousand in new computers and software that will provide significantly enhanced functionality over the systems that are currently being used. The remaining $75 thousand represents the modification and upgrades to existing systems and equipment. Purchased hardware and software will be capitalized in accordance with Bancorp policy while other remediation costs will be expensed as incurred. Expenditures reported during 1998 totaled $163 thousand. During the six months ended June 30, 1999, expenditures for new computers, system modifications and upgrades totaled $49 thousand. The Bancorp does not expect the cost of Year 2000 compliance to have a material effect on its business, financial position or results of operations.

The Bancorp relies heavily on computer technology and third party vendors for computer processing and its business activities. The Year 2000 issue has created risk for the Bancorp from unforeseen problems that could arise internally, as well as, from third parties whom the Bancorp uses to process information. If not adequately addressed, the failure of the Bancorp's computer systems and/or third party's computer systems could have a material impact of the Bancorp's ability to conduct its business. To mitigate this risk, the Board of Directors and management have made a total commitment to resolving all Year 2000 issues. Ongoing communication with third party vendors has been established to monitor their year 2000 efforts. The Bancorp's primary third party processors have stated that they have completed the renovation and testing of their systems for Year 2000 readiness. All systems and interfaces are being tested internally to confirm reported compliance.

The Bancorp has designed its Business Contingency Plan to minimize the risk of financial loss for the Bancorp due to disruptions, and ensure timely and orderly resumption of the Bancorp's operations in the event of a disruption. The plan identifies and prioritizes systems, equipment and forms needed for Bancorp operations and customer service; lists individuals responsible for monitoring Year 2000 efforts for each operational area of the Bancorp; lists alternative actions available for systems failing to achieve Year 2000 readiness; provides for target dates for implementation of contingency strategies; assesses the risk of various components of the plan; and provides for independent review of the plan. The Board of Directors and management understand in a recovery situation, the Bancorp may not be able to continue operations at the same level that it currently maintains. However, because the Board of Directors and management have been proactive in their involvement with the Year 2000 project, the Bancorp believes it is well positioned to make timely decisions related to the need to invoke the contingency plan and avoid disruptions to customer service and business operations.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

When used in this report and in future filings by the Bancorp with the Securities and Exchange Commission, in the Bancorp's press releases or other public or shareholder communications, or in oral statements made with the approval of an authorized executive officer, the words or phrases "would be," "will allow," "intends to," "will likely result," "are expected to," "will continue," "is anticipated," "estimate," "project," or similar expressions are intended to identify "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Such statements are subject to risks and uncertainties, including but not limited to changes in economic conditions in the Bancorp's market area, changes in policies by regulatory agencies, fluctuations in interest rates, demand for loans in the Bancorp's market area and competition, all or some of which could cause actual results to differ materially from historical earnings and those presently anticipated or projected.

The Bancorp wishes to caution readers not to place undue reliance on any such forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date made, and advise readers that various factors, including regional and national economic conditions, substantial changes in levels of market interest rates, credit and other risks of lending and investment activities and competitive and regulatory factors, could affect the Bancorp's financial performance and could cause the Bancorp's actual results for future periods to differ materially from those anticipated or projected.

The Bancorp does not undertake, and specifically disclaims any obligation, to update any forward-looking statements to reflect occurrences or unanticipated events or circumstances after the date of such statements.
